Ophthalmoscope and Retinoscope - Combined.

An up-to-date instrument for the diagnosis of the pathological condition of the interior of the eye without the use of a dark room or to dilate the pupil. By its use all errors of refraction are noted and measured to an absolute certainty, without asking the patient any questions—thereby leaving the operator independent of the intelligence of the patient. It is the latest and most wonderful production of optical science. By its use the retina (veins and arteries), is seen as clearly as the patient's face. This costly instrument, but as I have been always deeply interested, and as a specialty of examining and fitting of glasses to the eye. I have up-to-date with the latest and best methods and instruments and that the best is none too good for my patrons. They may rest assured that they will get the latest and best service obtainable anywhere derived from long years of practical experience with up-to-date appliances and for the least money.

Respectfully,

MAJ. RADFORD

Will Not Get Divorce on Charges of Infidelity.

Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 11.—The Kentucky Court of Appeals today upheld the judgment of the Christian circuit court in refusing to grant Maj. Cyrus Radford of the United States navy a divorce from Florence Robinson Radford on grounds of infidelity.

Mrs. Radford is a daughter of a naval officer. They married at Washington in 1896. They agreed to separate in 1900. Mr. Radford went to New York City to reside. The husband employed detectives there to watch her and they gave rather sensational testimony by deposition against her in the courts here. It was ruled the testimony was incompetent.

The interment took place at Ebenezer Wednesday.

ROY SALMON

Shoots Out His Brains at Madisonville.

Told His Friends He Was Going to Kill Himself, But They Thought It a Joke.

Roy Salmon, a prominent lawyer and Democratic politician, committed suicide in his office at Madisonville Tuesday afternoon by blowing out his brains with a revolver. No cause for the act is known other than that he had not been in very good health for some months and for the past week had been partially confined to his room with chills. Circuit court was in session, and Mr. Salmon had been in the court room most of the day attending to his legal duties. He left about 4 o'clock and held a lengthy conversation with his brother, R. M. Salmon, president of the Crabtree Coal Company, of Illinois, on the street, and seemed to be in the best of spirits. A few moments later he remarked to friends that he was going to end his life, but was not taken seriously. He then went alone to his office and shortly after inmates of other offices located on the same floor were alarmed by the report of a pistol. Forcing their way into his quarters they found him in a dying condition with a bullet hole through his head. He succumbed in a few minutes.

Mr. Salmon served four years as county attorney of Hopkins county and had held many important places within his party. Last winter he was given an office under Auditor Hager at Frankfort, but resigned after serving a short time to resume the practice of his profession. He was 44 years of age and leaves a wife and two children. He was a member of the lodge of Elks.

In 1894 Mr. Salmon was the Democratic nominee for State Senator from this district. At that time he lived in this county. He was born a few miles north of Hopkinsville, and has numerous relatives in Hopkinsville and other portions of Christian county.

Dabney a few months ago.

POLLED THORNTONS.

Dr. J. D. Clardy Has a Fine Herd of Sixty.

Dr. J. D. Clardy has an exceptionally fine herd of Polled Thoroughbred cattle, numbering about 60 head. This herd is headed by "Kentucky Colonel" a double standard registered bull weighing about 2,000 pounds. Dr. Clardy has bred thoroughbreds for many years and his herd is hard to equal anywhere.

Former Governor W. Murray Crane has been appointed Senator from Massachusetts to succeed the late Senator Hoar.

MASS MEETING

Developed Nothing Except a Divided Sentiment on Amounts.

The mass meeting at the Court House Tuesday night to consider the sewerage question was organized by the election of Judge W. T. Fowler as chairman.

Mr. J. B. Galbreath, of the Council, and Dr. R. L. Woodard said $30,000 was enough for the work in hand and that a proposition for that amount would be more apt to pass.

This view was opposed by Mr. A. J. Casey, who preferred $50,000 as the amount to be voted on. He proposed a resolution naming a committee to assist the council, but after discussion it was withdrawn.

About the only business transacted was the adoption of the following resolution offered by Mr. Frank Rives:

Resolved, That we, the citizens of Hopkinsville, in mass convention assembled, recognizing the urgent need of an adequate sewerage system for Hopkinsville, endorse the action of the City Council of Hopkinsville in calling an election to vote on the proposition of a $50,000 bonded issue for sewerage purposes, and that we give them our hearty co-operation and assistance in carrying the same at the coming November election.

The prospects for the passage of the proposition in its present shape are by no means bright. It fact it has been loaded so heavily that it is virtually killed.

TOBACCO MARKET.

Receipts to Date Nearly Fourteen Thousand Hogsheads.

Receipts this week 145 hogsheads of tobacco. Receipts for the year, 13865 hogsheads. Sales for the week were smaller than those of last week, but prices remain about the same. Sales for the year amount of 12561 hogsheads. There were only four hogsheads rejected this week.

R. M. Woodridge & Co., had a sale of the loose weed on the floor. The kinds sold brought fair prices. As nearly all the old crop has been disposed of, the loose sales are now now so heavy as they were a few weeks back, but as soon as the new crop begins to move, this branch of the business will at once increase.

CALLED A HALT

On the Erection of Cabins Without Permits.

The attention of the Council having been called to the unlawful erection of objectionable cabins around the Virginia street school building, action was taken at the last meeting to stop the erection of any more cabins until permits have been secured, signed by adjacent property owners. The city engineer was instructed to look into the matter and see that no houses are erected without permits. The question of removing those already up was not considered at the last meeting of the Council.

FOR BOLDNESS

A thief entered the residence of Mr. Clark, T. C. Railroad watchman, on West Seventh street Tuesday night and carried off two pillows, a bolster, comfort and some other bedding. The theft was committed before the family had retired. Members of the family heard the thief in the room, but thought that the noise was made by one of the family and paid no attention to the matter.

Albritton has attacked the Standard Oil company in a damage suit seeking to recover back taxes on personality of $3,000, alleged to have been omitted from five years' tax schedules. Kingston, St. Vincent, Oct. 6.—The captain of the British steamer Sibun, which arrived today, reports that when he passed the Island of Martinique, Sept. 30, Mont Pelee was in full eruption. The volcano was emitting stupendous black clouds and balls of fire. This accounts for the dust clouds yesterday in the Windward Islands. Early in May, 1902, Mont Pelee broke into violent eruption, wiping out the city of St. Pierre and reaching other towns near by. The loss of life on that occasion was estimated at 40,000.

Suit Filed at Louisville For Back Taxes.

This claim alone brings the alleged delinquency to about $51,000. The other suit is to collect taxes on $200,000 worth of instruments, wires, etc., said to have been unaccounted for for assessment.

ASYLUM TROUBLES

Result in a Batch of Indictments Against Officials.

Dr. Board Says They Are the Result of Spite Work Following Dr. Lackey's Removal.

The grand jury Wednesday afternoon, upon the testimony of Dr. W. A. Lackey, until two days before first assistant physician at the Western Asylum, returned the following indictments against the Superintendent and other officers of the institution:

Joint indictment against "Dr. Milton Board and others" for malfeasance in office, in "giving away public property." This includes 8 of 9 members of the Board of Commissioners. W. T. Tandy, the new member, is not included. It is alleged that the defendants presented Senator Gus W. Richardson with two Jersey heifer calves belonging to the Asylum, one two years old and one 8 months old.

Individual indictments are also returned against five commissioners, viz:

Judge C. H. Bush, for accepting a fee in a law case in which he and other lawyers represented the Asylum.

Jno. B. Chilton, for holding the office of farm superintendent at a salary of $1,000.

M. H. Carroll, for having sold straw and other provender to the institution.

President F. M. Charles, for having sold hay and corn.

Marlow Johnson for having sold cattle, he being a member of the cattle-dealing firm of Ford & Johnson.

Joseph C. Buckner, Secretary of the Board, and a member of the coal firm of Buckner & West, was indicted for having a contract to supply coal to the Asylum.

Lucian H. Davis, Treasurer, for having the contract for stone work on the new addition to the Asylum, now under course of construction.

In addition to these indictments Dr. W. A. Lackey was himself indicted for "assault and battery" upon a patient named Spegal Bourland, while he was temporarily in charge of the Asylum. N. H. Pentress and Tom Winders are witnesses in this case.

Some of Them Dismissed.

Yesterday afternoon on motion of Com. Atty. Smith, the indictment against Dr. Board and others was dismissed as to Dr. Board and Commissioners C. H. Bush and David Smith. Messrs. Bush and Smith were not present when the board voted to present the cattle to Senator Richardson and Dr. Board did not vote upon it and was not a party to the transaction, though he says he approved of it and is not disposed to shirk any part of the responsibility.

Dr. Board's Statement.

Dr. Milton Board, Superintendent, in an interview said:

"The indictments are all the result of spite work and would never have been thought of except for Dr. Lackey's removal. A statement in regard to his removal should be made. On Sept. 14 I submitted to Gov. Beckham an official document asking for the removal of Dr. Lackey for the following reasons:

DR. MILTON BOARD.

1st—Incompetency.
2nd—Neglect of duty.
3rd—Cruelty and inhumanity to patients.
4th—Being a constant mischief maker.
5—Appropriating money and other articles of value belonging to patients to his own use.

6th—Being a confessed grafter.
7th—Being unworthy of confidence and belief.

Accompanying this paper was a paper signed by every commissioned officer and other officials asking his removal. Also one from the Board of Commissioners concurring unanimously in the request, basing their action on charges two, three and four in my report.

Dr. Lackey went to St. Louis, and saw the Governor in person, but the result of his interview was that he tendered his resignation and it was accepted to take effect Oct. 10. These indictments were returned two days later on Dr. Lackey's testimony. At the same time he was himself indicted for the offense that was the chief cause of his enforced resignation.

The indictment growing out of the presentation of two Jersey calves to Senator Richardson excludes all of the commissioners except Mr. W. T. Tandy, who has been since appointed. The presentation is admitted. Senator Richardson labored unceasingly to secure the appropriation of $75,000 to enlarge the Asylum, and the cattle were intended as a slight testimonial of the appreciation of his efforts by the Asylum officials. He accepted the calves, but the larger one, two years old, was subsequently killed by a train. The presentation occurred long after the Legislature adjourned, and had no bearing on Senator Richardson's action. The Asylum officials tendered a banquet to the Legislative committee when it visited this city in the same spirit that the testimonial was later presented to its chairman.

The indictments against individuals are too trivial to receive serious notice. Those against other officers are ridiculous in the extreme. For instance the coal contract was made several weeks ago with Mr. James West and the partnership between him and Secretary J. C. Buckner was formed Oct. 1st. Mr. Buckner had nothing to do with it. All of the officials indicted will demand immediate trials."

Dr. Lackey's Side.

Several days ago Dr. Lackey sent to the Governor a paper containing the same charges contained in the indictments. He also preferred charges against Dr. Board of padding requisitions and drawing pay for discharged patients and for one patient who was dead. This paper is said to be in the hands of the State Inspector. As these matters had been brought to the attention of the Governor before Dr. Lackey's resignation was requested, it is the general belief that nothing further will be done about them.

Mr. Bush Interviewed.

In an interview with a Kentuckian representative yesterday, Mr. Bush said in regard to the indictments against him:

"Certain persons have sought to stab me in the secrecy of the grand jury room where I had no opportunity to be heard, and was denied that privilege, although I repeatedly requested it, and therefore take this method of telling the public now as to the merits of the indictments against me.

It is not the first time that a man who has done no wrong has been the victim of spite and malice in a star chamber proceeding. Nearly two years ago a suit for damages was filed against the Western Kentucky Asylum by one P. M. Willingham as administrator for his son for the latter's death, alleging that while he was a helpless patient at that institution he was negligently scalded to death. The accident occurred on Dr. Lackey's ward, and the suit was for $25,000, and filed and vigorously prosecuted by some of the ablest lawyers at the Hopkinsville bar, Judge James Breathitt and Downer & Russell.

While I was from home engaged in my canvass for Circuit Judge and without any solicitation on my part and without my knowledge (until afterward) the Board of Commissioners made an order selecting Hunter Wood & Son and myself to defend the suit. In conjunction with them I labored faithfully in defense of that case which was a dangerous one, and gave it my faithful attention until the close of the trial, which was a very hard fought one, and we won. I was paid a reasonable fee just the same as was my co-counsel, and if any attorney connected with the case will say I did not earn what I received I will refund it. It never occurred to me and does not now (the Grand Jury to the contrary notwithstanding) that I did wrong in rendering that service and accepting that fee. I support my family practicing law.

I don't believe the statute relied on to indict me will admit of that construction.

The same statute has been in force many years, during which time I understand that Judge Peck and the Hon. John Pelan, while Asylum Commissioners, transacted law business for the Asylum and received compensation for it, and it is within my personal knowledge that Judge Breathitt and J. W. Downer represented the Asylum in a damage suit while Commissioners, and collected fees for their services.

A lawyer on the board is in a better position to become acquainted with the details of a case than an outsider, and by reason thereof, is better prepared to handle it.

Other things being equal, in view of these things, why I should be singled out and made an example of, I leave it to a generous public to say.

Still more surprising is the fact that I am included in the indictment for giving a cow and a calf to Gus Richardson. Mr. Tandy was left out of that indictment. I suppose because he was not then a member of the Board. I was a member, but was not present when it was done, and had no more to do with it than Tandy, or any other citizen of the city or county. I never voted for it, was not at the Asylum when the Board took action on the matter, and knew nothing of it until sometime after the shipment of the cattle. So far as I am concerned, the grand jury acted in this matter entirely without proof or investigation, and indicted me, I suppose, simply because I was a member of the Board.

I make this statement in reference to the cat le transaction because it is in strict accordance with the facts, and to show that I had no connection with it whatever, but I do not wish to be understood as criticizing my associates who did have, for I am sure they acted from the best and purest motives. Mr. Richardson perhaps more than any one else had been instrumental in securing the $75,000 appropriation for the enlargement of the asylum, and what they did was a very slight testimonial of their appreciation of what he did for the institution."

The latest troubles in the Western Asylum are viewed by the Kentuckian as happenings that must be handled merely for their news value. The only feature about them that directly concerns the Kentuckian is the significant fact that Dr. W. A. Lackey's retirement marks the disappearance of the last of the officials with whom it had its little unpleasantness three years ago. Although it has been in no way interested in changes made subsequent to the fight it made and lost, the position it then took has been vindicated by the logic of events. The Kentuckian is nearly always right.

Most derangements of the kidneys are due to catarrh of the kidneys. Peruna is a catarrh remedy. This explains why it is that Peruna cures a great number of kidney diseases in which the usual remedies fail.

If you do not receive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

BUCKINGHAM'S EYE

"BASEST SET,"

Are the Farmers, Said Roosevelt
In a Speech in 1896.

Meaning That He Looked Upon
the Farmers as the Lowest Class of People.

Washington, Oct. 15.—(Special Correspondent of the KENTUCKIAN.)—The Republican speakers and the press bureau of the Republican National Committee are industriously denying that President Roosevelt, when he was Police Commissioner Theodore Roosevelt, in New York City, in 1896, ever said that "Mr. Bryan and his adherents have appealed to the basest set in the land—the farmers."

Here are the facts and also some extracts from an interview that will prove interesting reading:

At a rally of the Sound Money Club at the Wool Exchange in New York City October 27, 1896, the leading speakers were Gen. H. P. Porter and Police Commissioner

THEODORE ROOSEVELT IN 1896. When he was Police Commissioner of New York and said the farmers were "the basest people on earth."

Theodore Roosevelt. Mr. Roosevelt had but recently returned from a stumping tour of the West, in which he had devoted much time to Illinois. In the course of his speech at this Sound Money Club meeting at the Wool Exchange, he said: "I shall confine my remarks to what Gen. Porter has said about patriotism. Patriotism comes first and I hope you will not fail to display it next Tuesday."

"MR. BRYAN AND HIS ADHERENTS HAVE APPEALED TO THE BASEST SET IN THE LAND, THE FARMERS."

"If they are not so, then why do they believe he can make a dollar out of fifty cents? He tells them it can be brought about by a free royalty—the right to burn and plunder without the interference of the police."

"But this man back of Bryan, Gov. Altgeld, of Illinois, is far more dangerous than the boy who is anxious to precipitate another civil war."

"Altgeld typifies the danger that walks in the night. He talks much, preaches repudiation, but takes every penny from his employees."

In the course of this speech he also said that the delegates to the convention that nominated Altgeld were made up of murderers, horse thieves, burglars, libertines, crooks of all kinds—men who had been convicted of crimes ranging from pocket picking to arson and from mayhem to rape."

(The report of this speech was taken from the New York Journal of October 28, 1896.)

It appears that this speech was not reported in any of the Republican papers of New York, but this is not unnatural because the time was near the close of the campaign and so much political news was going that much of it had to be omitted. However, the sentiments of the speech were expressed on the same day that the speech was delivered and printed as an interview in the New York Sun of the same day that the New York Journal published the report of the speech.

Extracts from the interview follow:

In October, 1896, after a stumping tour, chiefly through Illinois and Michigan, Theodore Roosevelt, then Police Commissioner of the city of New York, gave a column interview to the New York Sun. This interview was evidently as carefully as Mr. Roosevelt ever considers anything. It was published in the New York Sun of October 28, 24 page, 34 column. The Sun was then, as at present, on the same side of the political fence as Mr. Roosevelt and anxious to do him honor in exploiting his views. In the course of this interview Mr. Roosevelt said: "Men who know they have in them the capacity of success, and who feel the thrill of pride that comes with strong hands, stout hearts and cool heads, do not see the necessity of being jealous of anybody. The strength of the populists lies with the ignorant and vicious and also with the weak, who have not the intelligence to see that their failure in life is not due not to others, but to themselves, but who wish to put the blame of their short comings on some one else."

Again— "Undoubtedly Bryan has a great hold upon the unintelligent and the vicious. He attracts that type of farmer whose old game hangs on one hinge, whose old hat supplies the place of a missing window pane, and who is more likely to be found at the crossroads grocery store than behind the plough. He attracts still more the professional laboring man of the type that labors as little as possible, and continually strives to delude such workmen as are ignorant and foolish enough to be misled into some movement which cannot but end in disaster. But the thrifty, intelligent and resolute are in the majority and it was my invariable experience that men of this stamp, even if somewhat predisposed to Bryan, were repelled by the cheapness of the man. I do not like to use such a word in reference to a presidential candidate, but there is no other word describes him so well."

In the same interview he thus paid his respects to the followers of the late Governor Altgeld, of Illinois:

"Almost every respectable man, whether shopkeeper or laborer, is against Altgeld, and his strength is drawn purely from the lowest element of the community, the most incapable of self-government, the population from which are recruited the ranks of the criminals and semi-criminals."—CHAS. A. EDWARDS.

Where the Almond Thrives.

Almonds mature in a warm climate which is dry in summer. The more moisture they can have in growing time the plumper the nut, but when ripening approaches they need dryness. The requirements exclude from the culture many parts of California, where the almond was first planted. The nut will not mature in the coast regions where the fog pours in each summer's day, nor in the colder parts of the state. The southern Sacramento valley and the northern San Joaquin are the localities where the almond thrives best and here many growers are making their principal crop.—Katharine Chandler in Sunset Magazine for October.

The Two Candidates.

Parker is a modest, sane, level-headed, gentleman with a mind trained by long service on the bench to a fair, conservative discussion of every question. Roosevelt is a strutting, strenuous politician, who takes the shortest cut to his destination, whether he tramples down the White House lawn, or kicks a hole through the constitution. One respects the jaws and the rights of the people, without an exhibition of viciousness or selfishness; the other is as wilful as a child, as full of resentment and stuffed with personal pride. How could any intelligent voter make a mistake between them.

"THE TWELFTH NIGHT."

As Arranged By Augustine Daly, and Presented by Miss Burnett.

It is of interest to know that in the present revival of Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night" the title is word for word the same as used by the late Augustine Daly, that scholar and gifted gentleman whose death was a loss to the American stage. When Mr. Daly made his notable revival of this play some fifteen years ago, he arranged a special prompt book, which by the way, is a rare and interesting document.

When Manager Joseph Shipman engaged Miss Charlotte Burnett for "Viola," he placed this book in her hands, saying as he did so: "I hope Miss Burnett, that in presenting you with this relic of past greatness, the ghosts of the greatest American producer may hover around you to inspire your season's work."

It would seem that this wish has been granted, for wherever Miss Burnett appears she is hailed as the legitimate successor of Miss Rehn. Mr. Daly's famous star.

Mr. Shipman has surrounded Miss Burnett with a large and capable company, including Mr. George Seybolt as Naivolo, prominent in the support of Charles Dalton, Julia Marlow, and other well-known stars; Mr. F. J. McCarthy as Sir Toby, who was leading comedian with the McCaul, Pay Templeton, Boston Ideal and Emile Neville Opera Companies, also Henrietta Crossman in "Mistress Nell," Mr. Joseph Wilson as Sir Andrew, who is widely known for his clever renditions in such plays as "The Prisoner of Zenda," "Puddenhead Wilson," etc. Mr. Henry Halleck as Duke Orsino, who has long experience, notably with Frederick Ward and Louis James. Mr. Maurice Stuart as Sebastian, whose training for this particular part was under the watchful and artistic eye of Viola Allen. Miss Kate Raye as Olivia, recently with Klass & Erlanger's "Two Orphans," and David Belasco's "Sweet Kitty Bellairs," (Henrietta Crossman.) Miss Irene Eckis as Maria, who was distinction in "Alabama" and "Arizona." Mr. John Saphore as Feste, the Clown, who has the unique distinction of playing "Polonius" and "First Grave Digger" making a cast the like of which has not been seen in recent years.

We are indeed fortunate in securing a performance by this really excellent organization and just here we feel inclined to compliment a large number of our citizens who were instrumental in securing this company for a performance on Monday, Oct. 17. Already every thing points to a record breaking audience, and Manager Holland is making preparations to accommodate the banner audience of the present theatrical season.

The I. C. Statement.

It was an Athenian who reduced the philosophy of happiness to two rules of action: Take much from life, and give largely to the living. And in the centuries that have passed since Pericles exemplified his precepts in his own life, the world has progressed but little beyond the ethical law upon which he insisted. The terms have changed, but reduced to its ultimate intention, the dogma of almost every school of moral science from his day until now, is fairly stated in these words.

Judged by this standard of happiness, the year closing of June 30, 1904, was an exceptionally happy one for the Illinois Central Railroad, for during that year it increased materially both its gross receipts and its expenses. The fact that the current expenses of the road increased more than its gross receipts, ought not, perhaps, to be argued by the pessimist. The road has, at least, felt the joy of discharging munificently. It has been the medium of enlarged and wonderful activity, carrying more of the commerce and travel of the nation than ever before. It has, at the same time, cost the road more to carry its business than before, and the ratio of increased cost has outstripped the ratio of increase in the gross income.

Stated in the more exact language of the figures of the report of the directors of the road for the year referred to, it is shown that the increase in gross receipts from traffic amounts to $1,645,059.04, while the increase in expenses of operating foot up $2,957,367.96. The reasons assigned for this disproportionate increase in operating expenses are: The prolonged cold season of the past winter, the increased cost of fuel and the increased wage scale of operatives. In the latter item alone the increase is shown to have been $2,400,499.25.

There is food for reflection in this latter statement. It is sometimes bitterly complained by the working force that there is an unfair division with them of the profits of the gigantic industrial enterprises which transact the business of this Twentieth Century world. If there is reasonable foundation for such a charge, it is certainly not to be found in the fact that the largest item of increase in the expenses of this road for the year is in the wages paid for its operatives.

One moral, however, is certainly pointed out by this condition of affairs. It is cumulative evidence of Republican prosperity, which consists in augmenting the earning power of an individual, or of a corporation, and at the same time increasing still more in proportion the essential expense account of the earner. That the Illinois Central Railroad should show such a result at the end of its year's business is not a matter for wonder. It would be if the result were otherwise. The road is an integral part of the commercial and industrial development of the United States, and necessarily reflects prevailing conditions. The facts shown in the statement referred to indicate how closely identified are the best interests of labor and capital, and how impossible it is for the one to prosper or suffer without involving the other.

As the great commercial artery along which pulses the interchange of business North and South, the Illinois Central is of special interest to both sections. As the chief of the many lines of railway centering in Memphis and discharging their swelling tides of commerce through her gates, the road is of special interest to Memphis. And hence it is with more than ordinary gratification that Memphis unites with the rest of the busy world of commerce, North and South, in celebrating this enterprising line upon the splendid showing made. The Illinois Central has been an enlarged distributor of wealth during the past year. So much is evidenced by the annual statement, and in this respect, at least, it is to be congratulated upon having fulfilled what Pericles denominated the law of happiness. It has taken with a larger grasp of business of the world and dispensed with broader palm the result of its winnings.—Memphis Commercial Appeal.

ONE STEP AT A TIME.

The lantern throws its dim light only just far enough for one step. But as only one step at a time can be taken that little circle of light is large enough to walk in. It may seem to be slow progress, but it is sure progress, nevertheless.

People who are sick with lung disease cannot be blamed for the desire to get well quick. But even on the road to health we can only take one step at a time.

Sufferers from lung "trouble" who have been cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery testify that with each day's use of the medicine the progress to health is marked. The cough lessens, the hemorrhage stops, the body gains in flesh and the strength grows measurably. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures obstinate coughs, bronchitis, bleeding lungs, emaciation and other diseases which are neglected or unskillfully treated terminate fatally in consumption.

"In 1900 my husband had a severe cough and also neuralgia," writes Mrs. Jettie E. Payne, of Kiel, Okla. "For nearly three years his cough was so bad he could not lie down at night. He got so tired from the doctors we employed, so he purchased two bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and took a tablespoonful every two hours. After the first four doses we could see that his cough was better, and he rested fairly well that night. The doctor said it was the bottles of Golden Medical Discovery cured him, nothing else did. We thank Dr. Pierce for what his medicines have done for us, and we can recommend them and feel that we are recommending what will cure, if used according to directions. I have recommended them to three of my friends, and with good results."

Springs, Texas, writes July 19, 1899: "I have used in my family
Ballard's Snow Liniment and Hore-hound syrup, and they have proved certainly satisfactory. The liniment is the best we have ever used for headache and pain. The cough syrup has been our doctor for the last eight years." 25c, 50c,

HERE'S A WAY TO SAVE DOCTOR BILLS.

Physicians Give Free Advice by Which Parents May Profit.

It was an association of gentlemen, professionally physicians and chemists, all of whom were born in the drug trade, so to speak, and who have been connected with it all their lives, who first gave to the world Castoria, which as every one knows is a pleasant and effective remedy for the ailments of infants and children. It has always been recognized as a meritorious preparation, and its reward has been the greatest popularity ever enjoyed by any remedy ever put upon the market; attained, not by flamboyant advertising or appeal to ignorance or vulgar prejudice, but by inherent merit. All physicians recommend it, and many, very many, prescribe it.

Many parents call in the family physician. Many other parents take advantage of what the physician told them when he was first called in consultation. All good family physicians say: "Give the children Castoria." Healthy parents know this remedy of old, for they took it themselves as children.
It was more than thirty years ago that Castoria made a place for itself in the household. It bore the signature of Charles H. Fletcher then, as it does today. The signature is its guarantee, which is accepted in thousands of homes where there are children.

Much is printed nowadays about big families. Dr. William I. Mc-Cann, of Omaha, Neb., is the father of one of these much read-about families. Here is what he says:

"As the father of thirteen children I certainly know something about your great medicine, and aside from my own family experience I have in many years of practice, found Castoria a popular and efficient remedy in almost every home."

Charles H. Fletcher has received hundreds of letters from prominent physicians who have the same esteem for Castoria that Dr. McCann has. Not only do these physicians say they use Castoria in their own families but they prescribe it for their patients. First of all it is a vegetable preparation which assim-ilates the food and regulates the stomach and bowels. After eating comes sleeping, and Castoria looks out for that too. It allays feverishness and prevents loss of sleep, and this absolutely without the use of opium, morphine or other baneful narcotic.

Medical journals are reluctant to discuss proprietary medicines.
Hall's Journal of Health, however, says: "Our duty is to expose danger and record the means for advancing health. The day for poisoning innocent children through greed or ignorance ought to end.
To our knowledge Castoria is a remedy which produces composure and health by regulating the system, not by stupefying it, and our readers are entitled to the information."

WORK OF WEIGHING

Mails Completed and Standard of Pay Fixed.

The work of weighing the mails on all railroads in the Southern states, which was started by the government last spring, has been finished and the reports have been turned in.

This work is done every four years in order that the government may determine whether the roads are entitled to increased pay for handling the mail matter and what the increase should be.

The L. & N. will receive a greatly increased amount of pay, but the increase for the Tennessee Central is much larger than in former years. This is due largely to the recently increased mileage of the road. It is understood that the increase on the T. C. will be something like $13,000 annually over what it has been.

Practically without exception the pay to Southern railroads will be increased.

convinced that you can be cured. No matter

AT HOWELL FRIDAY

Next Meeting of Teacher's Association Will Be Held.

The next meeting of Christian County Teachers' Association will be held at Howell on Friday, Oct. 21, 1904, beginning at 10 o'clock a. m. Everybody is cordially invited to attend. An interesting program is being prepared and a pleasant day is anticipated.

The last meeting was held at the Walker School and was largely attended by the hospitable people of the neighborhood as well as by the teachers. We are very grateful to those good people for their kindness on this occasion.

An unusually good record has been made by the teachers so far in regard to these meetings; only one has been absent and it was unavoidable.

Every one has taken the part assigned and fine meetings have occurred the result.

On account of holding these meetings on Friday this fall, which is done at the urgent request of the teachers, I will be in my office every Saturday and not on Monday as heretofore, until I have finished visiting the schools. However, I shall always be found in the office on the first Monday in the month. Trustees and others who may have business with me will please take notice of this. Very truly, Katie McDaniel, Co. Supt.
